AUSTRALIA

Some great bargains here. Many of these are very highly rated.

| | | | | | | | |
|---|------|--------|----|-----|----|---------|---------|
| Burge Family Winemakers 'Draycott' Shiraz | 2003 | £24.14 | 12 | 25% | 3 | £289.68 | £217.26 |

| Burge Family Winemakers 'VP' (37.5cl) | 2003 | £12.99 | 12 | 25% | 3 | £155.88 | £116.91 |

Why these are not being snapped up is a mystery. Well rated and drinking beautifully. The Renoux is a lovely mature red now, though with plenty of life and a real bargain. The Draycott Shiraz from old vines is a medium to full style with lovely fruit, spice and integrated oak.

| Magpie Estate 'The Thief' Mourvedre-Grenache Rose | 2006 | £7.99 | 12 | 35% | 10 | £95.88 | £62.32 |

The Thief is a deep rosé/light red and still drinking well, great with barbecues (lot of those at present) and spiced dishes. The 2008 is on its way; likewise the delicious Salvation Gewurztraminer, an off dry, lighter crisper style of Gewurztraminer, bring on Thai dishes and similar; 2008 on its way hence the price. Lastly the Election 2005, a barrel selection of some of our best Shiraz. 2005 was a superb vintage, and this is drinking well, and had some great press, will evolve for a few years yet too.

The Trockenbeerenauslese are uniformly excellent. The 2003 is drinking beautifully and very well priced. Likewise the fabulous Welschriesling's the 2001's at their peak though no hurry, showing lovely secondary flavours. The Blend 1 is only made in the best vintages and this oak aged Zweigelt is rich and impressive.

BURGUNDY WHITE

All blue chip wines here from mostly great vintages. How these have got left behind i will never know. The prices look great now compared to the current offers especially with the impact of the devaluation of the pound. The 2005's are from one of the great vintages and these have all had great

A few delicious wines from Georg Breuer. The Grauburgunder is drinking really well and is an excellent honeyed, spicy food friendly white wine. The 'cru' Rieslings are delicious, textured, pure and minerally.

|---------------|------|---------|---|-----|---|---------|---------|

Why this is still around is a mystery from the stunning 2004 vintage. In Robert Parkers' Wine Advocate the following review "Gaja's 2004 Langhe Sperss is an infant. Still incredibly primary, it exudes the essence of Serralunga black fruits, smoke and tar. The new oak is still very evident here and the wine seems to be at an awkward phase of its development. Still, it offers stunning concentration as well as length, with soft, caressing tannins that frame the fruit all the way to the long finish. This wine is in need of serious bottle age and may very well merit a higher score once it emerges from its temporary period of dormancy. Anticipated maturity: 2014-2029". 96 points

The Campo Ardosa is a perennial bin end. It's drinking really well, made from old vine traditional Douro varieties and at its peak. A recent bottle was rounded and savoury with sweet fruit. Lovely.
