

NOEL YOUNG WINES BIN END LIST JULY 2010

Welcolme to this offering; a look at our warehouse stock sheets and a general stock assessment has shown we are accumulating a lot of wine! With lots of new wines on the way it's time to do some trimming, so here is a selection of wines that have been with us for a while or where we are simply overstocked. There are some genuine bargains to be had here, and all the wines have been professionally stored so should be in top condition. Please note if stocks allow there is a case price as well as a bottle price, buying by the case will always have a significant further discount. We will aim to update this document regularly and add wines as we find them, this will be posted as a download on the website so do check back. Please note that we have NOT set these prices up on the website, but feel free to order via the website, adding SALE to the comments box (during the checkout process) and be assured that we will only charge you the sale prices. However, it may be simpler to phone (01223) 566744, fax (01223) 844736, or email admin@nywines.co.uk with your request. As ever it's a first come, first served system, payment with order, and delivery will be charged at £9 for one case of 12 bottles or less, and £5.00 per subsequent case. Amex 2% surcharge applies. Please note we can offer no refunds or exchanges on any wines in this offer. No other discounts are applicable.

Mac Forbes 'Woori Yallock' Chardonnay	2005	£18.10	£14.99	-	6

Not really a bin end, but just overstocked and more has just arrived. The Election 2006, is a barrel selection of our best Shiraz. 2006 was a superb vintage, and this is drinking well, and has had some great press, will evolve for a few years yet too. I would opt for drinking this ahead of the 2005, lovely opulence, texture and complexity

Magpie Estate Shiraz 'The Election'	2006	£29.99	£24.99	£140/6		26x6

Burgundy

All blue chip wines here from mostly great vintages. How these have got left behind I will never know. The prices look great now compared to the current offers especially with the impact of the devaluation of the pound. The 2005's are from one of the great vintages and these have all had great press. Then there are the ultra rare Dugat Py wines, and the stunning Comtes Lafon Meursault's. The 19/20 Jancis Robinson rated Boisset Chambertin 2005.

Rhone Valley

As with Burgundy some great wines here from top properties, and great vintages. Compared to the 2007's they are very well priced and all have had great press. Clos du Caillou, Grand Veneur, Saint Cosme, Pegau and the fabulous Soumade : all have had amazing press and age brilliantly. Also some fabulous Chapoutier Seleccion Parcelaire wines too, including rare magnums.

Germany

A few delicious wines from Georg Breuer.. The 'cru' Rieslings are delicious, textured, pure and minerally, we have some the very rare Berg Schlossberg, also an opportunity to get some of the very limited dessert wines that are fabulous. The Spatburgunder 'B' is the wineries top Pinot Noir. Quite Burgundian. Also the last stocks from the dessert wine master, Horst Sauer in Franconia. These have won huge numbers of awards.

Why this is still around is a mystery from the stunning 2004 vintage. In Robert Parkers' Wine Advocate the following review "Gaja's 2004 Langhe Sperss is an infant. Still incredibly primary, it exudes the essence of Serralunga black fruits, smoke and tar. The new oak is still very evident here and the wine seems to be at an awkward phase of its development. Still, it offers stunning concentration as well as length, with soft, caressing tannins that frame the fruit all the way to the long finish. This wine is in need of serious bottle age and may very well merit a higher score once it emerges from its temporary period of dormancy. Anticipated maturity: 2014-2029". 96 points
